

To whom it may concern,

I have known Mr. Ingo Mueller personally for approximately 15 years.

During this time I have both invested with Mr. Mueller in joint projects and also used his financial consulting services.

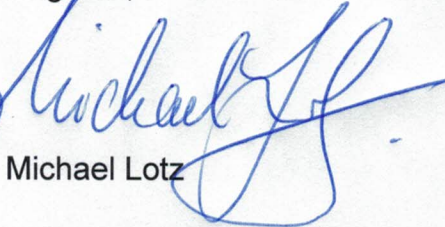

I would highly recommend Mr. Mueller as someone who does what he says and always looks out for the best interest of the shareholders.

He has a solid grasp of international financing issues and brings unique strategic foresight into everything he is involved with.

I have and will continue to bring Mr. Mueller opportunities and will gladly consider any project that Mr. Mueller brings to me for investment.

I trust Mr. Mueller as a person of high integrity and would recommend him to anyone who needs assistance in refining corporate strategy, identifying and recruiting key value add advisors or management team members and developing and executing on a financing strategy.

Regards,

Michael Lotz
